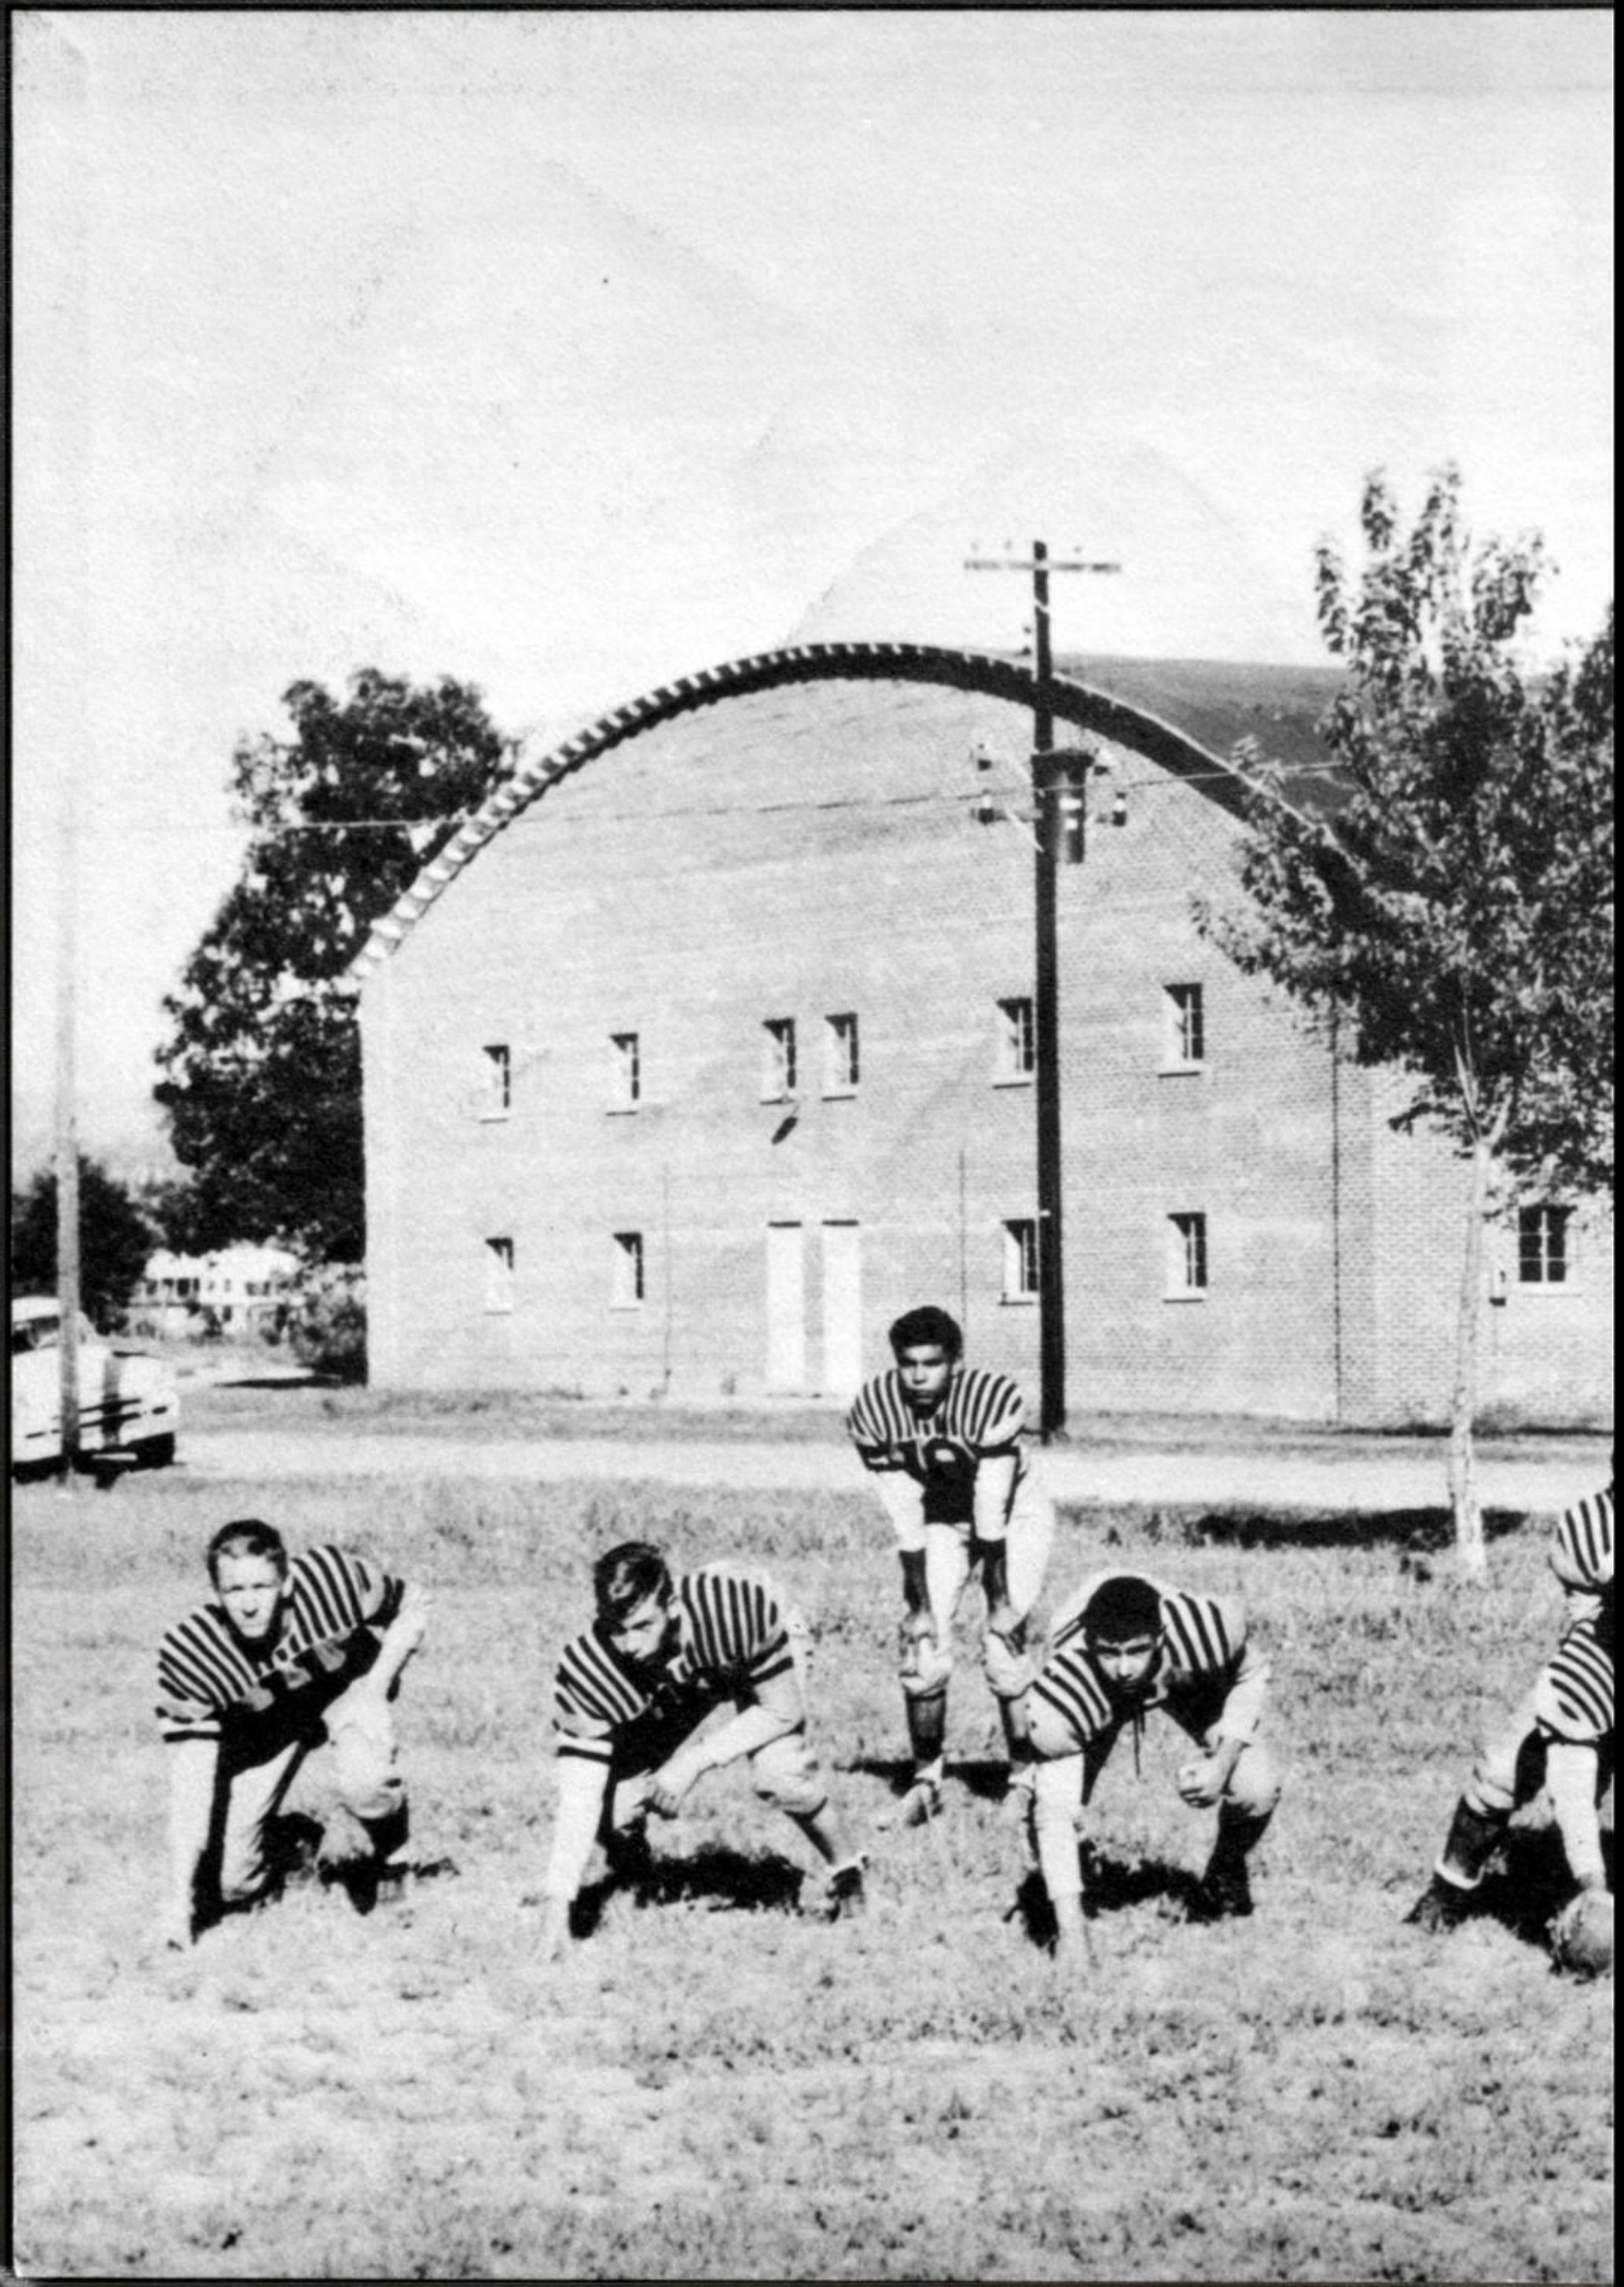
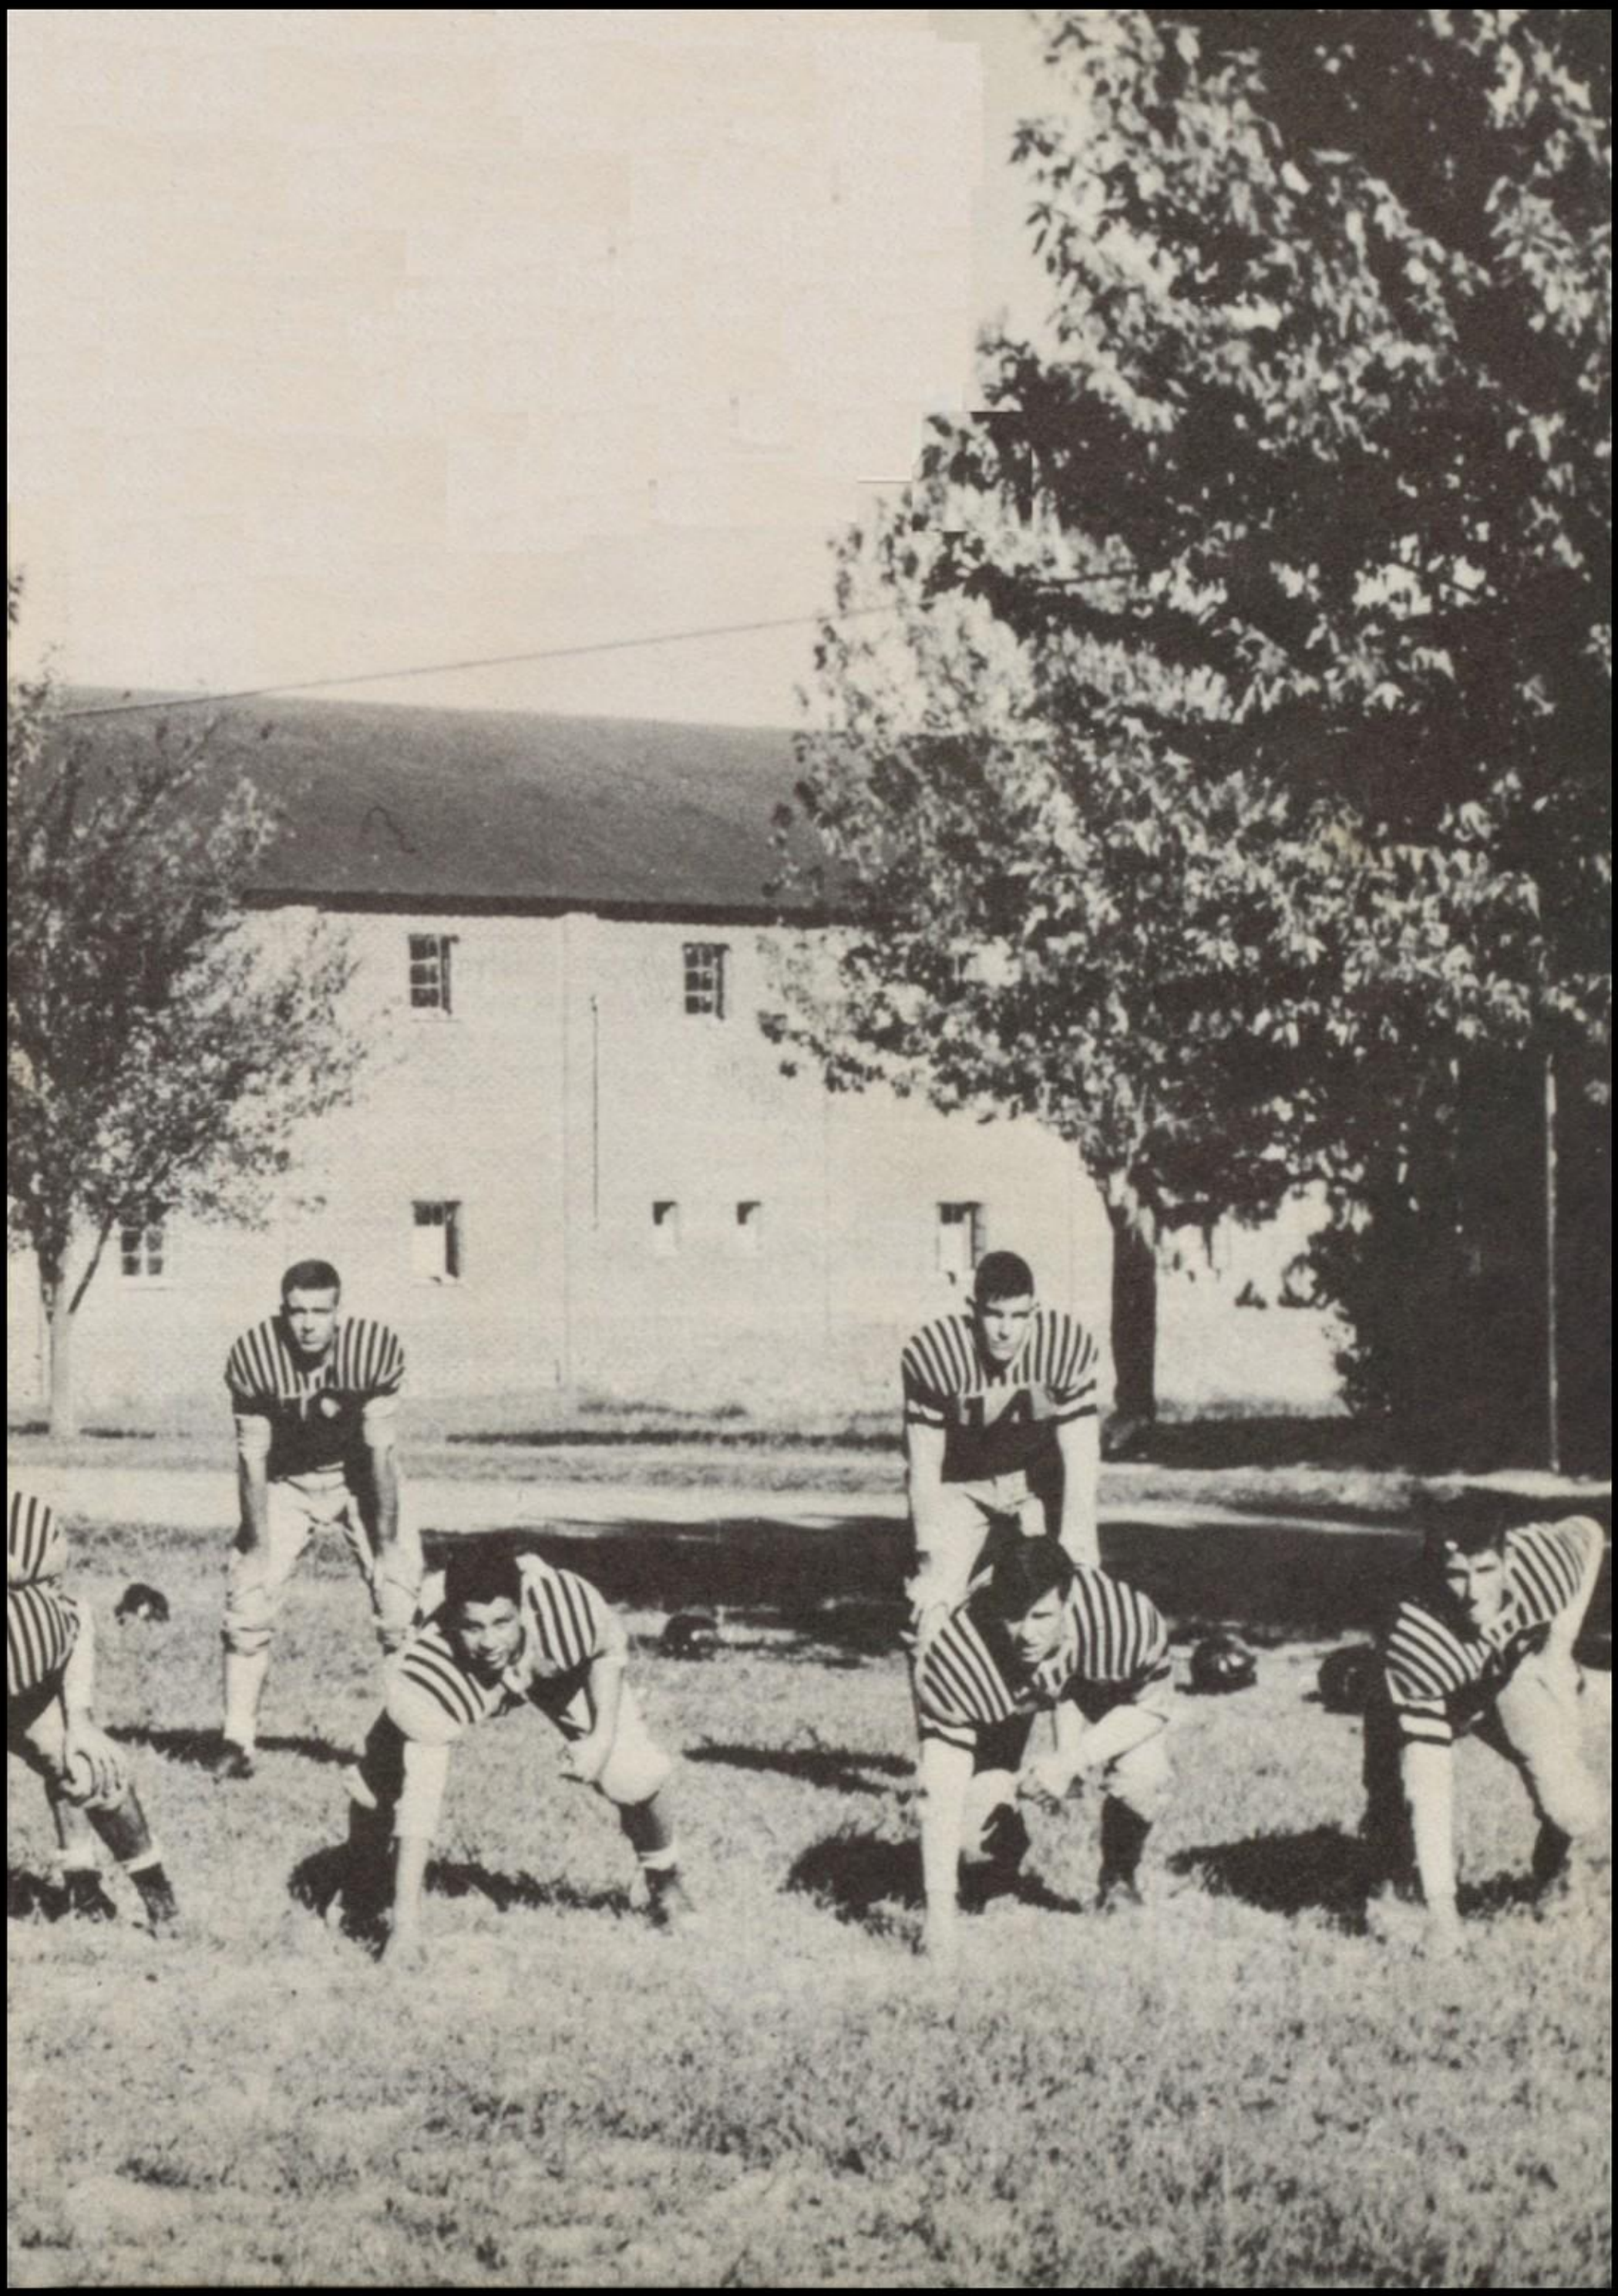
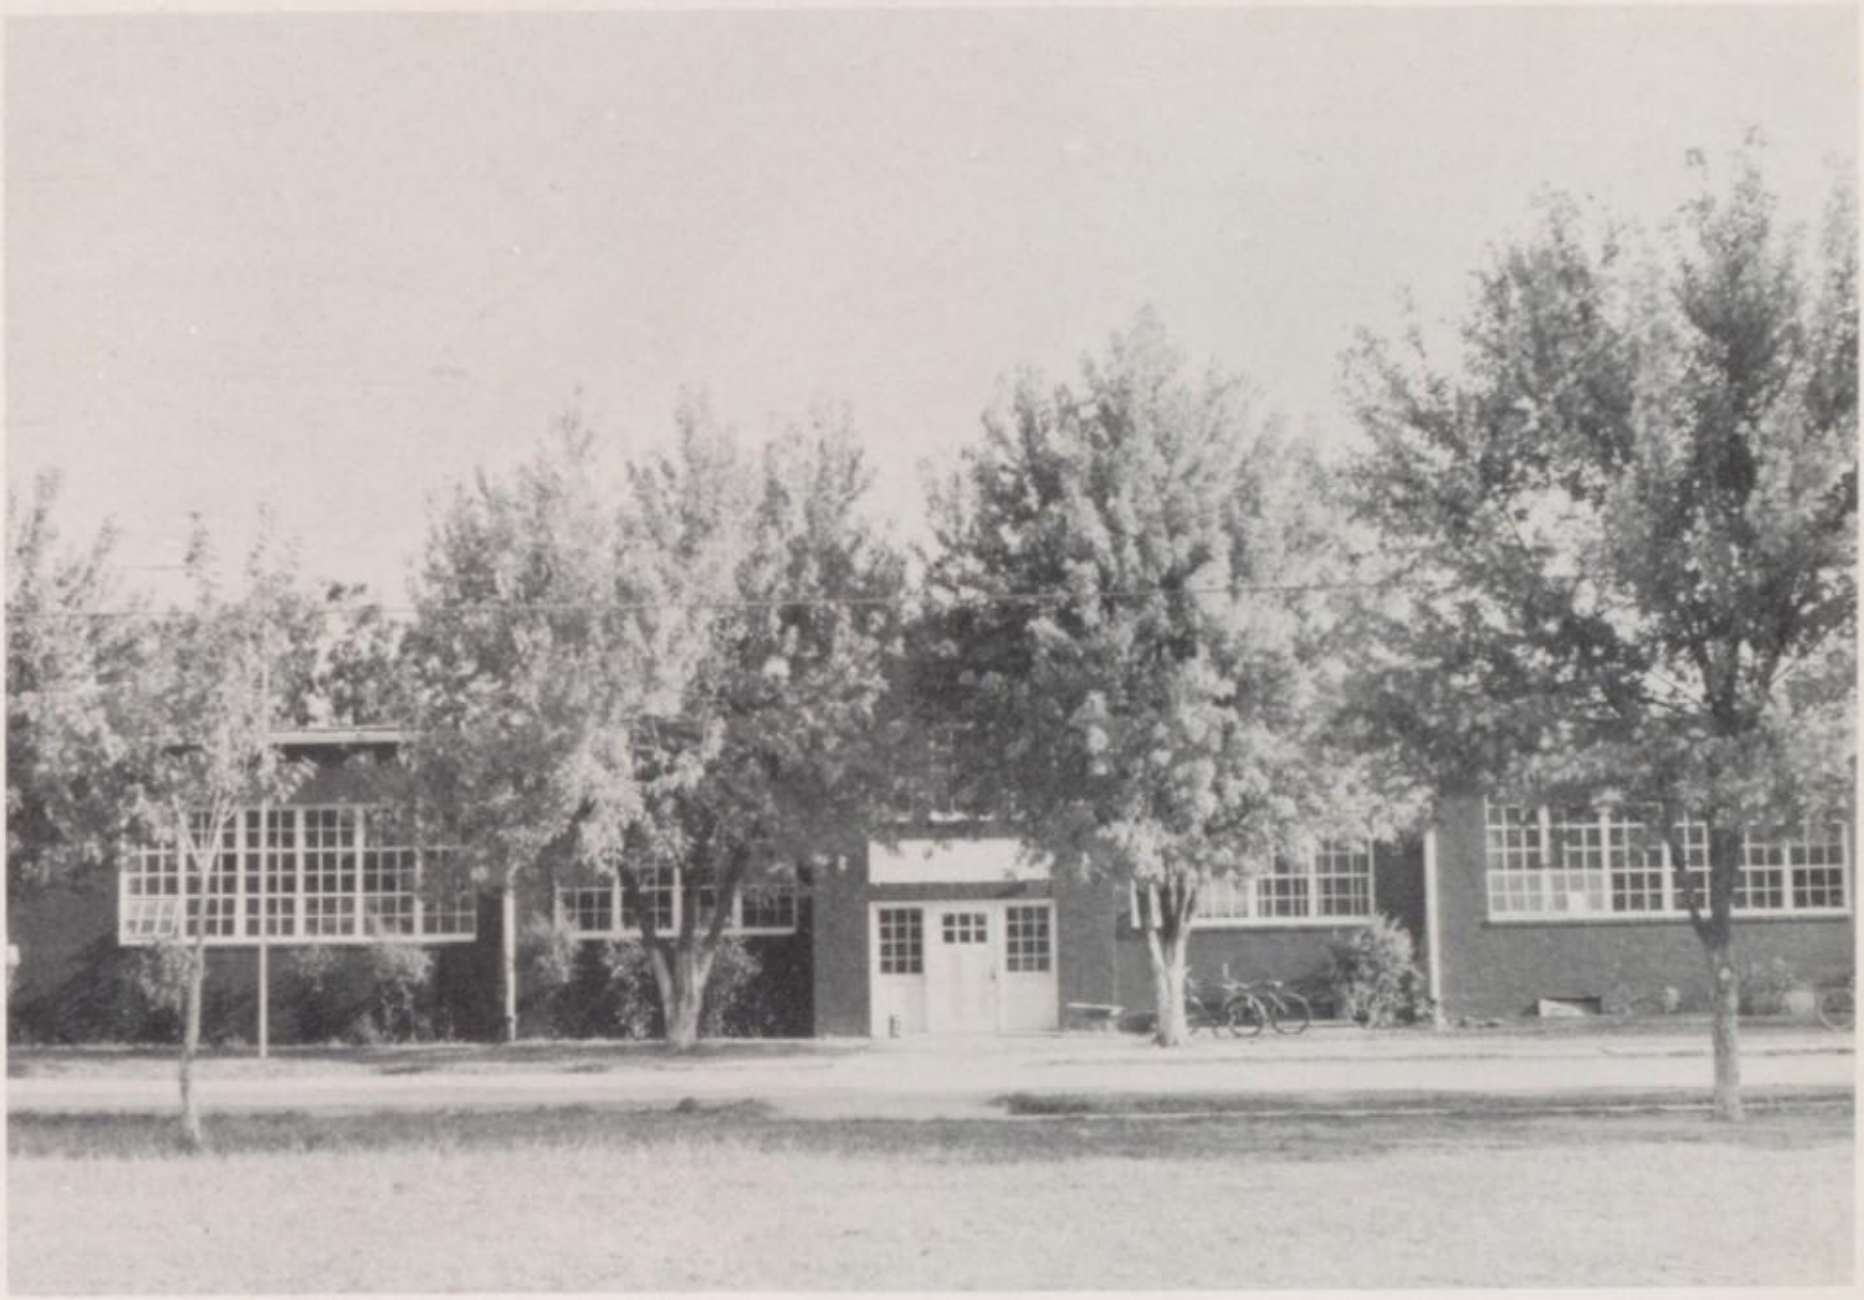
THE TIGER







THE SENIOR CLASS

of the

Talihina High School

Talihina, Oklahoma

Presents

The Tiger of 1953

IN RECOGNITION OF 1952 REGIONAL FOOTBALL CHAMPIONS

The Talihina football team opened practice August 25, 1952 with about 40 enthusiastic boys reporting to Coach DoRemus. They did not realize at that time what the future held in store for them. It is now a matter of record that they won the district and defeated Dewar for the regional championship.

The boys are due a great deal of credit for sticking to the practice field and playing the games fair, hard and clean. At times it would have been easy to become discouraged, but they always had the ability to bounde back after a hard close game. They were given excellent support by the school patrons, which helped to keep the morals of the squad high.

To each boy who helped make this a splendid football season we wish to show our appreciation by giving the team the highest place of honor in this "THE 1952-53 TALIHINA TIGER". May you always carry the TEAMWORK and SPORTSMANSHIP you showed on the Gridiron with you through the more important GAME OF LIFE.

BUDDING TREES

OF '53

I think that I shall never see
A class like ours of '53
A group who hums in halls all day
And dreams their precious time away
Respecting teachers one and all
And marched to every beck and call
A group who won't be here next year
To meet in T. H. S. we fear
Trudging to school so late each morn with smiling face instead of scorn
Now poems are made by fools like me
But God made our class of '53

THE SENIOR PROPHECY

The scene is twenty years from the present date at the reunion of the Seniors of '53. The reunion is being held at Talihina's most well-known nite-club, owned by Bill Thorton. Bill is now waiting anxiously at the door for the first guest. Oh! here's a taxi-load! It's the editor of the town paper, Jerry Dorman and literary critic, Wanda Beard. The cab-driver, Tommie Mitchell, says that she would love to stay, but taxi business is too good these days to take off time for a party. However, she promises Bill she may stop in later.

As they enter the club, Jerry spies Congresswoman, Patsy Roberts and takes out paper and pencil to interview her. Patsy has certainly done a lot for Oklahoma and our Talihina District.

Elmer Brown enters now. Elmer is the successful owner of the RITZ theatre. With him is Billy Brothers. Bill takes care of the popcorn machines on the nites Elmer stays home with the wife and ten kids.

C. J. Bryan, sports editor of our paper, suddenly dashed across the room to tell Jerry he is planning to get an interview with Coy Leming, star of the Talihina Tigers professional football team. Here's Coy now, accompanied by the Tiger's coach, Henry McDonald, and the team's chainman, Edgar Curnutt. Henry tried unsuccessfully to get Roy Leming, Coy's twin, to play on the Tiger's team, also, but Roy was content to manufacture his "Roy's Rusty Rowboats."

The boys look up with interest when Natha Gann, leading fashion stylist, and two of her models, Yvonne Dean, and Gayle Dorsey enter the room. Following them is Keith Owens. To everyone's surprise Keith is not only escorting his fiance', Martha McLemore, but also his wife, Corrine McIntosh and his ex-wife, Caryl Simpson. The lights are turned off now and a spotlite is on the celebrated torch singer, Johnnie Jones, as she sings a few well remembered songs. The next entertainment is provided by Robert Elliot's Naughty Nine. After the act is over, Robert introduces the star, Eva Richardson. The loud applause in the audience comes from Virgil Kight, the famous Hollywood star, who is Eva's husband. Patty Ann Emmert and Billy Lester, the dancing duet that has performed all over the world, now performs a Spanish dance. The entertainers are joining; as soon as Judy Wells arrive, the party will proceed. Here she is-she's so-o-o sorry she's late, but she just got back from the National Basketball Tournament.

As the alumni begin singing the old school songs, we will leave this happy scene.

Although this prophecy may be a little far-fetched, it really means we Juniors wish you all the success in the world.
